BANTERRA BANK PARTNERS WITH PAYROC FOR MERCHANT PROCESSING SOLUTIONS

Marion, IL— Banterra Bank and financial technology company, Payroc, have partnered to offer payment processing solutions and financial tools to small business professionals. Through this partnership, they will provide members discounted processing rates and world-class financial technology to further streamline operations for business owners.

"It's important for Banterra to find the right partnerships when it comes to providing the best products for our customers," said Jeff May, President and CEO of Banterra Bank. "We know Payroc provides high quality merchant services, and we look forward to sharing those services with our business customers who are looking for flexible and affordable payment options."

Through this strategic collaboration, Banterra will have the ability to negotiate more competitive credit card processing rates for business customers. Businesses will be able to expand their credit card processing services through innovative software solutions and increase cash flow. Plus, Payroc will offer members educational resources along with personalized consultations.

"We are truly excited about our new partnership with Banterra. Their proven dedication to providing long-term value to their customers and community is inspiring. We can't wait to see how our payment processing services will help grow both businesses!" said Chip Langdon, Director of Development, Strategic Partnerships at Payroc.
